

London Learning Cooperative

The London Learning Cooperative is looking for lawyers to tutor law students on a 1-to-1 basis as part of a new project for radical legal tuition.

About LLC

LLC is a radically inclusive, internationalist, and anti-imperialist tuition agency forging a global network. We connect students wanting to learn languages and other skills with tutors in formerly and currently colonised societies like Palestine, Pakistan and Ireland. We seek to discuss and understand imperialism in order to set about reversing its flows of wealth, people, knowledge and power.

MLG, with whom we are coordinating this project, is a group of practicing lawyers and academics who are interested in critically interrogating the law's function. The group depart from the idealist notion that law provides the only effective remedies for those genuinely lacking socio-economic power. Together we develop a materialist legal praxis.

LLC has spent the last few years developing our international network of tutors. We currently have a presence in France, Britain, Ireland's occupied six counties, Pakistan, Venezuela and Palestine. We're now seeking to expand our focus on language into radical, materialist legal education.

LLC is committed to four principles:

1. Radically inclusive pricing. Students pay what they can afford for a lesson.
2. Learning as a dialogue aimed at understanding and transforming society and the economy.
3. Creating bonds of solidarity between imperial core and periphery.
4. Workers' power and democratic, cooperative governance.

About the role

Within its radical framework, LLC is developing a tailored 1-to-1 tuition service for law students at all levels, including LLB, Master's, GDL, LPC and BPTC. We aim to help students to achieve success in legal education alongside a critical understanding of their studies and legal institutions.

We are looking for lawyers and legal academics to be tutors on this project. The role involves:

1. Leading 1-to-1 (and possibly small group) tuition for law students at any level, according to your areas of expertise and experience.
2. Working with individual students to plan a programme of tuition and independent preparation according to each student's aims.
3. Encouraging students to think critically about their legal education and the contribution of legal institutions to the reproduction of exploitation and oppression.

Essential skills and experience

- Legally qualified as a solicitor or barrister (or the equivalent in non-British jurisdictions) or pursuing a career in legal academia.
- Teaching experience.
- Ability to use Zoom or similar online technology for teaching.
- Access to a reliable internet connection.
- Commitment to LLC's principles and aims.

Desirable skills and experience

- Post qualification experience as a practising lawyer.
- Postgraduate legal qualifications (e.g. LL.M., PhD)
- Multiple languages, especially Arabic, Irish, Spanish, Brazilian Portuguese, Kurdish and Dari.

Pay: LLC pays everyone in the organisation a flat rate of £13.45 per hour. This the London Living Wage adjusted to a four-day week.

Hours: Tutors will work on a freelance basis and are free to take on as few or as many hours as suits them.

Location: Remote-working or as agreed with a student.

How to apply

Please apply by filling out this form, which will ask you a few questions about your qualifications, experience and skills.

If you have any questions about the role, please email us at londonlearningcoop@gmail.com.